

Conditionals: Negotiation Terms

Match the second conditional sentences to their endings.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 1. If you called her                            | I would invest in your company.           |
| 2. If we made a deal                     | I would want half the profit .            |
| 3. If I won money                               | I would make an appointment with the bank |
| 4. If you did the ironing                       | she would have passed her exams.                 |
| 5. If you told me sooner                        | he would have compromised .               |
| 6. If I made that proposal               | she may have made a decision more quickly        |
| 7. If she did her homework                      | there wouldn't be such a mess!                   |
| 8. If he gave a good suggestion          | I would have negotiated with him.         |
| 9. If my manager was more understanding         | I would have planned for this problem.    |
| 10. If you lost all of your money               | I would buy a new house.                         |
| 11. If your business strategy was better | we wouldn't be arguing now.                      |

Put the underlined words in the box below and find out their definition.

Words or phrases	Definition
Invest	To put money to use by way of buying or selling.