When travelling to other countries and cultures, you should try to adopt some of their norms and values. It is polite to follow their table etiquette when eating and even wear non-revealing clothes in public. So, as a tourist, remember to be polite, try to be socially acceptable and try to show your respect to another culture, since your attitude to another culture can carry a thousand messages. Therefore, the moral of the story is 'When in Rome, do as the Romans do.'
