

The board game is set on a green field with white lines. At the top and bottom are goalposts. A central path of white boxes contains the following questions, connected by downward and upward arrows:

- What can you attend?
- What can you approach?
- What can you arrange?
- I can attach...
- I can prepare...
- I can chat...
- I can travel...
- What can you compare?
- What can you accept?
- What can you obtain?
- What can you discover?
